

What The Press & Tastemakers are Saying...

"Dominga Martin is a talented, innovative and dynamic writer/director. She isn't what's next. She's ready to be what's now."

"Mostly Dominga is a visionary...there are very few of those..since this is her first film I can't talk about how great a film maker she will become...But I can see clearly that her vision is precise and she is determined to make significant marks on the film making industry. I've seen a few people like Dominga before in the visual arts...Wangechi Mutu comes to mind...Sanford Wylie. I saw the same thing in their eyes that I see in Dominga's and they have changed the face of contemporary visual art. She reminds me a little of my brother Russell when we bought a house and lived together...all he did was eat, think and sleep hip hop...she's pretty much the same way with making this film..."

-- Danny Simmons (Critically Acclaimed Painter & Older Brother to Mogul Russell Simmons & Rev. Run of Run DMC)

"Judging by the trailer, we should be in for a uniquely refreshing and entertaining experience that is both informative and artistic!"

-- Wilson Morales (Blackfilm.com)
